

Dr. Alvertis BROOKS JR.

Culturally Responsive Education &
Leadership Development Expert

Biography

Dr. Alvertis Brooks Jr. is a leading education consultant and Executive Director of the Rainier Valley Community Development Fund, committed to transforming educational and athletic systems for lasting impact. He develops strategies that engage students, empower families, and create leadership pipelines for BIPOC professionals. With expertise in leadership development, culturally responsive education, and systemic reform, he works to close opportunity gaps and build structures that foster long-term success.

Dr. Brooks architects leadership training programs that equip organizations with the tools to build inclusive, results-driven environments. He advises school districts, state athletic boards, and nonprofits on strategies to strengthen student engagement, increase family involvement, and develop future leaders. Through strategic coaching and consulting, he helps institutions implement sustainable frameworks that drive measurable progress and long-term change.

A sought-after speaker and workshop facilitator, Dr. Brooks delivers actionable insights on leadership, education, and equity. His sessions empower educators, coaches, and executives with the knowledge and strategies to create meaningful, systemic change. Focused on impact and sustainability, he ensures that students and professionals gain access to the mentorship, resources, and opportunities needed to thrive.

SPEAKING TOPICS & WORKSHOPS

Building Leadership Pipelines: Elevating BIPOC Talent in Education & Athletics A blueprint for creating leadership development programs that support and sustain BIPOC professionals.

Engaging Families for Student Success: Strategies for Educators & Administrators Practical methods for increasing family involvement to improve student outcomes.

Creating Inclusive Athletic Programs: Leadership Development for Coaches & State Boards How to design athletic leadership programs that foster diversity and long-term growth.

Culturally Responsive Education: Teaching Strategies That Connect & Inspire Training educators to create learning environments that reflect and engage diverse communities.

Transformational Leadership in Schools & Organizations A deep dive into leadership strategies that drive sustainable institutional change.

Beyond the Game: Developing Life Skills & Leadership in Student-Athletes Equipping young athletes with skills that prepare them for leadership beyond sports. sionals can adapt to stay ahead.

Booking Info

hello@dralvertis.com
www.dralvertis.com
Seattle, WA

